(Marie Skłodowska-Curie Innovative Training Networks)

Project Number: 764461

Acronym: VisIoN

Project title: Visible light based Interoperability and Networking

Work Package 1: Project Administration

Deliverable D1.2: Supervision Bylaw

Ecole Centrale Marseille (ECM), Marseille, France

September 2017

1. ESRs supervision

1.1. Joint supervision arrangements

At the time of proposal submission, the network members agreed to be involved in mutual supervisions. There have been signed Memorandums of Understanding (MoUs) between ECM-CTU, CTU-NU, ULPGC-CTU, ECM-NU, ITAV-NU, ECM-ULPGC, and NU-OzU on co-supervisions (please see the definitions of the acronyms in the appendix at the end of this document). The five industrial ESRs from OSRAM, INDRA, FORD, and OLEDCOMM will have co-supervision with universities.

It had been decided that in the case of co-supervision, the ESR would be assigned a primary supervisor at his/her host institution and a co-supervisor from the other network members. The co-supervisors are supposed to agree on time-line for research guidance through regular online meetings with the ESR. They should also help students in preparation of publications and have to attend in-person to ESRs' PhD qualifier exams and final defenses.

1.2. ESR Supervision

The following table summarizes for the ESR positions, the main beneficiary partner, the name of the institution where the ESR will be enrolled, the name of the main supervisor, and the name of co-supervisor (where appropriate). It should be noted that when the name of co-supervisor is not indicated, it could be subject to change and will be formalized at the time of PhD enrolment.
